

音声CDスクリプト

Disk 2 Lesson 4

1

■Malala: Fighting for Women's Rights

2

■Listening

In Japan, almost all children receive a good education. However, in developing countries, as many as 77,000,000 children cannot go to school. Of these children who have no chance to study, 57 percent are girls. Even children who are being educated must often stop learning because of sudden wars.

3

■Questions

1. How many children cannot go to school in developing countries?
2. Why must some children stop studying in school?

音声 CD のスクリプトを
掲載しました。

4

■全体 Oral Introduction

You have probably heard about Malala. She lived in Pakistan for most of her life, but recently you can see her on TV often. She spoke at the United Nations in New York, she has had interviews with many big news companies, and makes speeches in Western countries often. What did Malala do to become so famous? How did Malala change so many people's lives? In this lesson, we will talk about her. Some parts of her story are sad, but her difficult life made her a strong person.

5

■Part 1 Oral Introduction

Malala is famous all over the world. She was born in the Swat Valley in 1997. In this area, men and women are not equal. How did she grow up in such a situation? In this part, we will talk about Malala's early life.

6

■Part1 question

How and in what kind of community did Malala grow up?

7

■Part 1 Words

northwest traditionally attend