

Class: _____ Number: _____ Name: _____

○ 音声を聴いて空所に英語を書き取りましょう。

p.60 Part 1

Ancient Ice Cream

The history of ice cream began in ancient times. (1. _____) it was more like sherbet (2. _____). Many studies say that (3. _____) in China around 200 B.C. There, people put (4. _____). Later, this custom reached Europe. In Italy, the Roman Emperor Nero enjoyed (5. _____) between music lessons. He ordered his servants to go to mountains to collect some snow and (6. _____). The snow was then mixed with honey, fruit juices, and nuts.

p.62 Part 2

Marco Polo and a New Era of Ice Cream

There is another quite different story. Ice cream was introduced to Italy along the Silk Road. We can find a story of ice cream made in China in The Travels of Marco Polo. While Marco Polo was traveling, (1. _____) and brought the idea back to Europe. At first it became famous (2. _____). (3. _____) of ice cream began in the sixteenth century. Ice becomes even colder (4. _____). This fact was discovered in this century. Thanks to this discovery, iced sweets last longer.

p.80 Part 3

To France and America

(1. _____) between the children of elite Italian and French families, the cooks of Queen Catherine de Medici served “Flower of Milk” (2. _____) rich milk, honey, and ice. (3. _____) served to the Italian and French royalty.

音声を聞き取って空欄を埋めさせるディクテーション。